RUSSELL G. COURTNEY,
Petitioner
v.
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent.

No. [redacted]149

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE IN TYPEWRITTEN FORM

COMES NOW RUSSELL G. COURTNEY, petitioner in the above entitled cause, and respectfully moves the court herewith for leave to file his petition for a writ of certiorari in typewritten, rather than printed, form, respectfully showing as follows:

Petitioner is presently employed at the Palm Furniture Company, Inc. Petitioner has only been working at his present job for about two weeks. Prior to that Petitioner has been out of work for about six months. Petitioner is still trying to pay his parents back for all the costs incurred in the two trials that have resulted from this case and for hospital and doctor bills resulting from his back injury. Petitioner's take home pay a week is one hundred and thirty two dollars after taxes. Petitioner's expenses include food, clothing and shelter, unpaid doctor and hospital bills owed to Dr. Albert Meyer, Dr. Robert Kerland, Orthepedic specialists and Dr. Maxwell M. Andler, Jr. and a Neurosurgeon. Also Petitioner owes the Good Samaritan Hospital, the St. Vincent Hospital and Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital, all of Los Angeles. And as stated before, my parents Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Shepherd who helped finance my first two trials.

As a result of the foregoing, Petitioner, while not a pauper, is nevertheless barely able to provide for the necessities of life and take care of all the bills incurred during the four years that he has been struggling with this case.

Petitioner's appeal in the Court of Appeals was, by leave of that Court, prosecuted in forma pauperis. However, as indicated above, petitioner has, while on bail and during the long course of that appeal, been able to obtain employment providing a sufficient source of income that, in his opinion, it is probable that further maintenance of this action in forma pauperis is unwarranted. Nevertheless, as the above should also indicate, any expenses which petitioner does incur in maintaining this action must necessarily be kept to a bare minimum.

WHEREFORE, petitioner respectfully prays that an order be entered permitting petitioner to file this petition in typewritten form, already loged with the Clerk of this Court.

Dated: May 24, 1968.
